The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and

"Veiled Hell."

THE MIRABOLANT SANDS OF AMERICA—FIRE SPRINGS VALLEY AND PASS OF HELL—THE VEILED INFERNAL REGIONS.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from the "Headwaters of the Yellowstone, Montana," gives the following description of the "Valley and Pass of Hell," in that Territory:

And here, from the spot on which I stand, with my companions on this exploring expedition, tracing my notes, I drink in the views, so weird, so passing strange, that even in my wildest dreams never aught like this was seen. As daylight is dying on the Yellowstone hills, the sun melting down into the verge of the horizon, shooting his slanting rays far into the gloom of grotesque cliffs, and lingering upon the loftier peaks, converting their rugged surfaces into purple and gold, the islands in the river swell bold and beautiful in the rosy light, while yonder distant cone like hill stands against the sky a conspicuous mass fringed with fire. The gigantic mountains to the west cast their shadows far down into the silent valley at our feet, while the silvery Yellowstone flows on its whispering way, breaking the sombre aspect of the plain with the line of its gleaming waters. In this valley mysterious wonders have been visible from time immemorial, of which the mobile Saxon never heard. The Indians in the vicinity tell us it has always been thus.

Out of this plain, or valley, rather, which extends over an area of fifty miles, issue a million sharp jets of bluish-white flame, interspersed with fitful puffs of pearly vapor, which sails upward in endless turbinated convolutions, until, reaching a high altitude, they dissolve and become blended with the fluctuating cloud which hangs over the valley, as if to shield it from mortal eyes. The plain is dotted with innumerable rumps, from whence these vapory and fiery columns are emitted. In their formation they resemble miniature volcanoes. Fire-springs like these may be found in China; and the geysers of Iceland are but results of volcanic action of the same nature, though of greater force and power, than the hot springs in the valley of the Yellowstone. One can not help thinking that fiercest fires rage somewhere below the external envelope of the plain, to thus fan and force flames above the surface. A gentleman and savant, connected with our party, ascribes these igneous streams to gases escaping from a "veiled hell."

Another speciality of volcanic action may be observed by a closer investigation of the conical hills which loom up from the surface in every direction. Though there are no deep craters in their summits, it is an easy matter to detect a gentle hollow in each, more or less deep, covered with crumbling particles of lava-like rock. The base and sides are also thickly strewn with the like porous deposits—some of very large size, like enormous cindery cakes, the refuse of a foundry furnace. A sulphurous odor is in the atmosphere, reminding one of our companions of his experience in a choke-damp.

Surrounding the entire plain are lofty calciferous rocks, eroded and skeletonized by action of rains or shifting bodies of water, which now bear the appearance of inverted pyramids, prisms, and various other configurations. Besides preparing detritus, which lay piled in heaps at the foot of the cliffs, frequent torrents had so corroded and dismantled the rocks, that one would imagine a destructive fire had raged and burnt up a city by the quantity of fallen columns which lay scattered around in the most indescribable confusion. In the interstices of the debris there bubbled numerous saline springs, and continuing our examination further, we discovered several hot-water springs, from which vapory columns continually ascended. On testing the warmth of the water with Fahrenheit's thermometer, the mercury which stood previously at eighty degrees, shot up to one hundred and eighty degrees.

The tread of our horses' feet sounded hollow, while the noise seemed to reverberate along the earth like an echo. Not a blade of grass was to be seen, excepting along the margin of the tiny streams. The whole aspect of the plain was arid in the extreme. Ghostly relics of animal life literally covered the ground along the stream. This was evidently caused by the gathering of the buffaloes in the fall to cross the Sweet Grass, where they luxuriated for a season protected by the rising hills from the bleak winds, which with the force of simoons, sweeps over the southern prairies, until the severity of the season and the scarcity of grass warn them to leave, when they found their egress prevented by the deep snows in the passes, and they must have perished from hunger and cold, leaving their bones to be picked by hungry wolves, and to be bleached in the sun and rain.

No language can give any idea of the fearful desolation of this wonderful valley. It struck our hearts with a nameless dread. Not a wolf infested the chambered cavities of the cliffs; not a buzzard hovered over the vicinity. All was silent in this Valley of Death. One of the party of explorers bestowed upon it the significant appellation of "Hell."

It is a rich field, however, for the geological savant, and though famous travelers love to describe the splendors of Alpine scenery, dwell upon the classic heights of Olympus, dilate upon Lebanon, Mount of Glory, and foster the imagination among the Scriptural mountains of Judah, there are grander scenes by far in this new-born world of ours—with valleys far more idyllic than any old Europe can boast, and rivers of greater depth and larger volume. Travellers have descanted long enough upon the stale and melancholy inanities of the Orient. Let him that suffers with ennui, and the soul that hankers after vitalizing realities, travel in the borean regions of the Upper Yellowstone, and mighty mountains, savannahs of exceeding fertility, and valleys clothed with Eden loveliness, will be seen side by side with a plain teeming with diabolisms, from which you cannot emerge save through the "Pass of Hell."

Through such a pass did we grope our way, in almost profound darkness, as night had set in long before we entered the lonely defile. Why this wild, gloomy ravine, flanked by lofty, perpendicular walls, where huge boulders hung toppingly over, and down which a current runs with its shaking footstep, should be called by such an ominous name, I know not, unless it is that we are in the habit of ascribing such darksome places under the jurisdiction of the Evil One. So many abuses have been heaped upon him—every sin laid at his door—that it is time Satan should write his remonstrance upon his prison bars.

The New York Tribune has very neatly convicted the Herald of its old trick of changing its base on every possible extracts from its leading editorials upon the impeachment question. Premising that the public is desirous to know the sentiments of "that influential journal," the Tribune reprints an extract in which the Herald charged that the usurpations of King Charles the First of England dwindled into insignificance beside those of Johnson, and then truculently demanded: "Why, then, has Congress so long delayed in bringing this conflict to the test of impeachment?" At another time the same influential journal said: "The efforts of President Johnson to supersede the authority of Congress and the will of the loyal States cover a charge of usurpation of the most fearful import." On the day after the impeachment question was tabled in the House the Herald said: "The end of the impeachment humbug shows still more strikingly the extraordinary change that has come over Congress. The dominant party in and out of Congress, a short time since, clamored for the President's impeachment. They were ready to remove him at all hazards for partisan purposes." And again, with amusing effrontery, the influential journal says: "Never before did a great party come down from its lofty pretensions so flatly. If the Radical Republicans had wanted to do Mr. Johnson a great service they could not have done anything to accomplish that more effectually. But as there is evidence of returning reason among them we are not disposed to rub caustic on their sores too mercilessly." Surely, journalistic chique could go no further.

An exchange finds in the reported safety of Livingstone, the African explorer, a most agreeable illustration of the wisdom of doubt. The evidence of his death seemed to be very direct and explicit; it was asserted by one of the men who had been with him in his travels, and who pretended to have been a witness of it. The story was generally believed in England, and only a few scientific men and African travelers, who were better able than the community at large to estimate the value of African testimony, have refused to give it credence. The result fully vindicates their unbelief.

The Republican Party and Irishmen.

[From the Irish Republic, Dec. 7.]

We have already spoken of the Republican party. We have admitted, without hesitation, that they are far from immediate. Here and there the black sheep is only too conspicuously evident in the center, if not sometimes at the head of the flock. The Judas appears among the twelve, and carries the bag of his bribery with an unabashed countenance. These are some such disgraceful instances. These are your Radical (?) advocates of free trade with England. But after all they are little more than exceptions to the general rule. The leading journals and most prominent politicians of the great Republican party of America are true, heart and soul, to the protection of their country's industry. They have resolved that not England but America will be the word's vast manufactory, that they will keep the wealth of their country to enrich their own citizens, not to aggrandise the bloody, bloated aristocrats of Europe; that they will preserve for their own working men such wages as will enable them to live and rear their families in comfort and intelligence, as human beings ought, instead of sending the cash across the sea to be squandered by spend-thrifty lords and squires in the gambling hells of London and Paris. They are resolved that honest and industrious men in America will be protected, and not left the naked victims of an infernal system which has fed and clothed and lodged their brothers in England and Ireland worse—tenfold worse—than the horses and dogs of English aristocrats. This is the simple, practical [illegible] of protection to American industry. This is the creed, the principle, and the practice of thousands of Irishmen would no more think of voting for or supporting, than they would think of selling their souls to the author of evil himself. That is, in plain words, they go enthusiastically against the interests of their own country, of their own wives and children, of their own wages, of the very bread they eat and the raiment wherewith they are clothed. They go right, and most enthusiastically, in support of the wealth and power of England, of that country whose rulers have robbed them of everything but life, that have made them beggars and slaves in the land of their birth, that have hunted millions of them into exile and that pursue them with their scorn and venom, even to the ends of the earth. We again ask, and demand an answer: Was there ever infatuation so complete as this? Were ever ignorant blindness and unreasoning obstinacy so unpardonably besotted as they are here?

We are sorry to say that we can find no excellent exception to break the force of the condemnation which, in connection with this vital question, we are obliged to pass on the entire Democratic party. Free trade with England lies at the very foundation of the great Conservative structure. This is a cardinal doctrine of their peculiar political creed. Nor is there a single Democratic journal, from New York to San Francisco, which does not teach, from week to week and from day to day, this destructive and disgraceful principle. And if there is any truth, which we greatly doubt, in the boasted "reaction" which has been so much spoken of, and if there is any additional chance of the Democratic party once more assuming the rule of this great Republic, then one thing may be looked forward to as an absolute certainty, and this is free trade with England. This will have a few effects which it is worth the while of Irishmen to ponder seriously, before by their votes and influence they bring it to pass. One will be to reduce the wages of the workingman one half, so that those who find it difficult at present to live in New York or Chicago on two dollars a day will have the pleasure of accomplishing the same task, under the new English, Free-Trade-Democratic regime, with one. It will strengthen England, by pouring into her coffers the wealth of America, so that her reign of robbery and blood, instead of coming to a close, will, like the eagle, renew its age for another century or two, or perhaps for another such seven hundred years as Ireland had seen and felt.

Call for the National Union Republican Convention.

The following is an official copy of the call for the National Union Republican Convention:

"The undersigned, constituting the National Committee designated by the convention held at Baltimore on the 7th of June, 1864, do appoint that a convention of the Union Republican party be held at the city of Chicago, on Wednesday the 20th day of May next, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of President and Vice President of the United States.

"Each State in the United States is authorized to be represented in said convention by a number of delegates equal to twice the number of Senators and Representatives to which each State is entitled in the National Congress.

"We invite the co-operation of all citizens who rejoice that our great civil war has terminated in the discomfiture of rebellion; who would hold fast the unity and integrity of the Republic, and maintain its paramount right to defend to the utmost its existence, whether imperiled by a secret conspiracy or an armed force; of an economical administration of the public expenditures; of the complete extirpation of the principles and policy of slavery, and to the speedy reorganization of those States whose governments were destroyed by the rebellion, and the permanent restoration to their proper practical relations with the United States, in accordance with the true principles of a republican government."

Peace Democrats to the Bear.

[From the Alta California.]

The election of Maclay, the Democratic candidate for State Senator from Santa Clara, in place of W. J. Knox, deceased, is another evidence of the complete retiracy of the Peace wing of the the Democratic party. Maclay is one of the original Republicans of this State, but, for reasons best known to himself, he has gradually edged over to the Democracy, and, from being a rampant Radical, shrieking out when a member of the Legislature, "Is he loyal?" "Is he loyal?" when some obscure individual asked for a franchise for a foot-bridge in Deadman's Canon or Alligator Bend, he has so far changed that he is selected for Democratic candidacy in the important county of Santa Clara.

When the Democratic ticket was unexpectedly elected in this State the martyrs of Alcatraz and the venerable remnants of chivalry, who had hidden in obscure holes in the interior of the State during the war, made their sudden appearance as shad flies swarm out in the warm rays of an April sun. The huge-thighed, long-haired, white-hatted gentry of other days, swinging their crook-headed canes and sporting their spike-tailed coats, once more appeared at San Francisco and the State capital, ready to do and dare—and hold office. But their day of probation is not over; hungry from long fasting, they must chew the bitter end of disappointment for a brief space yet. They are permitted to cheer at the victory, but not to reap any of the substantial fruits thereof. If they gain any mental satisfaction by reflecting that the Democracy is justified by a popular vote, they are welcome to that poor substitute for gubernatorial and senatorial honors, port wardenships, military appointments and other coveted gifts of the party in power. The "regenerated Democracy" has no use for the men who have spat upon the Union, opposed the war for its preservation, and insulted the names of its foremost defenders. Chivalry and Peace Democracy is not out of its stony griefs, but is reaping the just reward of an infamous committal to the cause of secession. Their follies are not yet atoned for, and they may well say—

"The gods are just, and of our pleasant vices
Make instruments to scourge us."

He has not been able to [illegible] school since the occurrence. The [illegible] been arrested, as Prof. Turner, [illegible] ties, is unwilling to become prosecutor. But the public demands a legal investigation of the case, and proceedings will at once be [illegible].

It should be constantly remembered, when charges are preferred against the Union party for peculation in office, for frauds upon the revenue, and for extravagant estimates and expenditures in the public service, that that party has not control of the Executive Department of the Government, and [illegible] is not justly responsible for its acts. All failures to enforce the laws rest upon the Executive and his subordinates; and if the Government is defrauded of its revenue by the negligence or collusion of the officers, a thing which is known to occur frequently in many States, such frauds are not chargeable to the Union party. It is a well ascertained fact that in those States where Johnson made the greatest number of removals, the largest part of the frauds have been perpetrated. Again, all the Departments at Washington, with the exception of the War Office, are filled by men who are in accord with Johnson and the Democratic party; and none of them, except the War Department, propose any material reduction of expenditures for the next fiscal year. Take, for instance, the estimates of the Navy Department. Secretary Welles wants over $47,600,000 for that service for the next year. Since the close of the war, $160,000,000 have been expended under his direction to keep up the navy. Congress should stop appropriating money in unlimited quantities on such suggestions. Before the war, the navy did not cost more than ten millions per annum, and ought not to cost more than twice that sum now. New navy yards and new fortifications, which, if built, will cost enormously, are also asked for. Advices from Washington indicate that Congress will cut down many of the estimates in numerous branches of the service; and there is certainly good reason why it should be done.

It is wholly impossible to put a stop to all fraudulent transactions in the Government. In spite of the utmost vigilance such wrongs will [illegible]. If there have been more of them in this country during the last few years than formerly, it is because there has been greater opportunities to commit them. Since 1860, there have been vastly fewer frauds in proportion to the operations of the Government than during the last two Democratic Administrations. The corruption of [illegible] term was one of the great causes which overthrew the Democratic party. As frauds cannot be absolutely prevented, the only thing which can be done is to check them as far as possible. It is the fashion to speak of the corrupt practices of the present time as if nothing like [illegible] had ever been witnessed, and as if all men connected with public affairs were becoming tainted with dishonesty. The same complaint has always been common. In 1776 John Adams was at the head of the War Department of the Colonies and being in a position to know much of the management of affairs, he complained, like Washington, of "corruption even in that infant age of our republic," and of a "predominating avarice, which threatened the ruin of America." Thus it appears, that even our golden age of pure, disinterested patriotism will not bear the test of close [illegible].

The Public Domain.—An attempt was recently made in Congress to put a stop to granting lands to aid railroads. But though a few members protested in a [illegible] manner against further [illegible], the House, by a decisive vote of 168 to 30, refused to change the policy which has been followed for several years, and notice is thus given that land grants will be continued to aid these [illegible] public [illegible]. It would seem that there is little danger of the public domain being exhausted for some time yet, as the Land Commissioner estimates that the Government still has 1,843,998,400 acres, and Mr. Seward is likely to remain at the head of the State Department for more than a year to come, giving the country extensive opportunities for multiplying its acres and thus providing for future munificent donations of land. The Land Commissioner reports, further, that Congress has already given away 185,818,900 acres of the public domain, of which 124,000,000 have been given directly to railroads. Of course it is understood that a large part of the nearly two thousand millions of acres which remain in possession of the Government is [illegible] of deserts and mountains; but there is a great amount of rich and valuable land yet undisposed of. There are still "lands for the landless," without going to the Poles or the Tropics, to Alaska or the West Indies.

Texas.—The registration of Texas is completed, and foots up as follows:

Whites	56,665
Colored	47,430
Whole number	104,096
Whole number who applied and were rejected	7,560
[illegible]	9,236

Texas makes the sixth out of the ten in which the white voters [illegible] the colored voters. And yet Andy Johnson says that the whole South has been put under negro supremacy!

Simple S[illegible] is out in a new role. Having exhausted Oregon topics, he seems to have commenced writing "San Francisco correspondence" for the Herald. Being [illegible] the training of a veteran egotist, he is evidently making progress in devising ways of keeping himself before the public. He may be admitted up to the point of writing the history of "a personal circumstance" in time.

Alexander T. Stewart, the eminent merchant of New York, said in the Grant meeting in that city that Gen. Grant's "solid and great qualities assure us that he is equally fitted for peace or for war, and that under his administration the purposes of the war will be accomplished in securing this great connected country for a united, free, prosperous and happy people."

The [illegible] Journal says if there is not a thaw soon, there will be a great loss of stock from starvation and cold. Farmers are not so well prepared for feeding as they should be, and consequently they will suffer a loss.

The Corvallis paper complains that gambling is very common at that place, and says that boys are lured into the saloons and educated in the vice. The city fathers are called on to suppress the evil.

The Union Committee of Lane county is called to meet at Eugene on the 30th inst.

A Volcanic Eruption in Nicaragua.—Interesting is the news of a volcanic eruption in Nicaragua, which took place on the 14th of this month, and was undoubtedly connected with the series of similar phenomena witnessed all through the West Indies. Rising from the plains on which Leon, the capital, is situated is a long range of volcanoes, stretching from the Lake of Managua to the prominent one of El Viejo. In the center of that range is the old volcano, Rota (i. e., burst), with two peaks, remains of its long silent crater. Near the base of this volcano the earth suddenly opened in several places on the afternoon of the 14th, with a loud noise, first low and rumbling, then sharp, like violent claps of thunder. The noise frightened the people of Leon, which is only ten miles distant, out of their houses, and was even distinctly heard at the port of Corinto. As soon as night set in a beautiful sight was revealed to the surrounding country. Two immense columns of fire were seen issuing from the plains, in the midst of several little ones. The glare was so strong as to light up the towers of the cathedral in Leon, like the reflex from a fire close by. Lava and ashes were rapidly accumulating around the craters of the new volcanoes, building up some new addition to innumerable ones scattered over the country.

Advantage of Democracy.—We asked a friend from Yreka, says the Oregon Sentinel, a few days ago, why the roads of Siskiyou county were so much better than in this. "Oh," replied he, "we have always had a large Democratic population to keep the chain gang up to an effective working standard."

[From the Home Journal.

All Italy did homage to the conqueror, and it was, therefore, very natural that sculptors and painters should endeavor to draw some advantage from the popular enthusiasm for its deliverer, and that they should endeavor to represent to the admirers of Bonaparte his peculiar form and countenance.

But Bonaparte did not like to have his portrait painted. The staring, watchful gaze of an artist was an annoyance to him; it made him restless and anxious, as if he feared the scrutinizing look at his face might read the secrets of his soul. Yet at Josephine's tender and praying request, he had consented to its being taken by a young painter, Le Gros, whose distinguished talent had been brought to his notice.

Le Gros, came therefore, to Montebello, happy in the thought that he should immortalize himself through a successful portrait of the hero whom he honored with all the enthusiasm of a young heart. But he waited in vain three days for Bonaparte to give him a sitting. The General had not one instant to spare for the unfortunate young artist.

At last, at Josephine's pressing request, Bonaparte consented to sit for him on the fourth day one quarter of an hour after breakfast. Le Gros came, therefore, delighted, at the time appointed, into the cabinet of Josephine, and had his easel ready, awaiting the moment when Bonaparte would sit in the arm chair opposite. But, alas! the painter's hope were not to be realized. The General could not bring himself to sit in that arm chair, doing nothing but keeping his head quiet, so that the painter might copy his features. He had no sooner been seated than he sprang up suddenly, and declared it was quite impossible to endure such martyrdom.

Le Gros dared not repeat his request, but with tears in his eyes gathered up his painting material. Josephine smiled, "I see very well," said she, "that I must have recourse to some extraordinary means to save for me and for posterity a portrait of the hero of Arcola."

She sat down in the arm chair and beckoned to Le Gros to have his easel in readiness. Then, with a tender voice, she called Napoleon to her, and opening both arms, she drew him down on her lap, and in this way she induced him to sit down quietly a few moments and allow the painter the sight of his face, thus enabling him to sketch the portrait.

At the end of this extraordinary sitting, Bonaparte smilingly promised that he would next day grant the painter a second one, provided Josephine would again have the "extraordinary means" ready. She consented, and for four days in succession Le Gros was enabled to sit before him a quarter of an hour, and throw upon the canvas the features of the General, while he quietly sat upon Josephine's lap.

This picture which Le Gros thus painted, thanks to the sweet ruse of Josephine, and which was scattered throughout Europe in copper-plate prints represented Bonaparte, with uncovered head, holding a standard in his hand, and with his face turned toward his soldiers, calling on them to follow him as he dashed on the bridge of Arcola, amid a shower of Austrian balls.

It is a beautiful, imposing picture, and cotemporaries praised it for its likeness to the hero; but no one could believe that this pale, grave countenance, these gloomy eyes and earnest lips, which seemed incapable of a smile, were those of Bonaparte as he sat on the lap of his beloved Josephine when Le Gros was painting it.

The New Continent.—The Honolulu Advertiser has the following in regard to the discovery of a new continent in the Arctic:

In confirmation of the statement made of the probable existence of coal in the newly discovered Wrangell's Land, we may add here that Captain Lewis, of the Corinthian, assures us that coal is found along the shore near Cape Lisburne. He once picked up a bucket full that had been washed by the sea, for ages perhaps, took it on board, and found that it answered for fuel as well as the best anthracite. He also found birds resembling the American partridge very abundant there, and a great variety of flowers in full bloom in the month of August. He collected a boquet of several varieties, which, though beautiful, were generally devoid of much fragrance.

A Notable Reunion.—The New York Post, of December 10th, says: At the breaking out of the war, Gen. Augur was captain of a company in Oregon; Col. MacFeeley was the first lieutenant and Gen. Phil. Sheridan the second. All three met last Thursday at the Tremont House, in Chicago, for the first time since they parted company in Oregon. Gen. Terry, the hero of Fort Fisher, was also present at the happy meeting.

A new town called Dale City is being built in the Black Hills, thirty-five miles from Cheyenne, on the Union Pacific Railroad. It consists, at present, of some fifteen buildings, and others are erecting. Gold has been discovered in the vicinity of the town.

Dissatisfied.—New York Democrats don't like the course of the World newspaper, and it is said, are subscribing freely towards starting a new daily organ for the support of Pendleton.

The last valuation of property of the State of Ohio, is $1,140,000,000 nearly one-half enough to pay the national debts.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

FROM T. M. GATCH, PRINCIPAL OF THE PORTLAND ACADEMY AND FEMALE SEMINARY:

"Having lately had an opportunity of becoming somewhat acquainted with the workings of this Institution, I unhesitatingly recommend it to all who wish to secure a practical business education in the shortest time and with the least expense. The idea of going from Oregon to California to attend a Commercial School is simply absurd.

"It is my opinion that pupils instructed by Messrs. LAUDEN and DeFRANCE receive greater attention than those of any other Commercial College on the coast, and this I say without wishing to detract from the usefulness of schools I have visited in San Francisco."

NEW TO-DAY.

525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Running West from Omaha

ACROSS THE CONTINENT,

ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles farther, to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock-cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair-shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present, the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present at 90 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, and in New York at the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, and by

CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, No. 7 Nassau st.,
CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, No. 51 Wall st.,
JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 33 Wall st.,

and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP, showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

JOHN J. CISCO, Treasurer, New York.

[illegible] ORDINANCE.—An [illegible] meeting of members of the City Council was held yesterday, at the [illegible] Chamber— [illegible] in the Chair. [illegible] invitation of members of the Council, W. W. [illegible] and Col. [illegible] were [illegible] to express their views on the legality of the ordinance. Mr. [illegible] gave a history of the organization and prospects of the O. C. R. R. Co.

[illegible] by stating that he be believed [illegible] was the Oregon Central Railroad Company which was entitled to the land grant and State aid. [illegible] the adoption of the Ordinance, be- [illegible] His principal objection to the Ordinance was [illegible] that, as he thought, the City Council had no right [illegible] particulars, which he proceeded to state, [illegible] that the friends of the [illegible] ought to be allowed to [illegible] it and then submit it to the [illegible] strike out that portion relating to [illegible] Street; [illegible] of the rate of taxation, from year to year, [illegible] property [illegible] make it more [illegible] by the railroad company [illegible] that the proceeds of the bands sold by the [illegible] of the City, should be inv[illegible] in railroad iron, rails, etc., and delivered to the company in certain [illegible] they got their track graded ready for the [illegible] means; and also [illegible] some [illegible] to sign a contract with the [illegible] company [illegible] all these [illegible], etc.

[illegible] at [illegible] length upon [illegible] the C[illegible] to pass the Ordinance [illegible] ground, in favor of so doing. He read a lengthy [illegible] from the Supreme Court of California [illegible] him in his position, and [illegible] very far to satisfy the C[illegible] on this point. It would certainly cost but little to test the legality of the [illegible], the expense of which might be [illegible] and the city would lose nothing [illegible] The [illegible] people and taxpayers wish to aid in this enterprise; [illegible] be done with entire safety, and no one ought to [illegible] If this aid is not rendered, it will be [illegible] and Portland will [illegible] road; and she may some day, when it is [illegible] railroad companies combine to favor [illegible] The aid [illegible] is not a drop in the [illegible] the railroad.

[illegible] we have no [illegible] how the arguments [illegible] may have affected the minds [illegible] we are led to believe from what [illegible] with [illegible] when it [illegible] in some of the [illegible]

[illegible] —It would that the opposition [illegible] will make a trial trip from [illegible] to the [illegible] river, to-morrow. The old [illegible] is being fitted up to run between here and Oregon City, and a [illegible] has been current that an arrangement has been [illegible] with the owners of the Kaiser by which that [illegible] goes into the line.

DELAY OF THE ALERT.—The [illegible] Alert was detained [illegible] yesterday, at Oregon City, by getting into a jam of ice. While she was lying at the dock the gorge of ice gave way and filled the channel, so that the men had to cut her way through. In consequence of this, she did not arrive here until after dark.

OREGON CITY [illegible]—We clip the following items from the Oregon City Enterprise of Saturday: J. Paquet, builder of the Salem steam ferry boat, has concluded a contract with the P. T. Co., at Canemah, for the construction of a new steamer to run between this city and McMinnville. [illegible] 116 feet, beam 20 feet, depth 4 feet 8 inches, calculated to be among the fastest and finest boats on the upper Willamette. She will take the Rival's machinery, and be ready for the fall trade...... We learn that Mr. Kidder, chief [illegible] in O[illegible], has instituted a Council of the Knight Templars in this city. This is an adjunct of the order of Good Templars, and we believe it has claims to ancient date, or is at least an offshoot of the Knights of the Holy [illegible], originated in 1118 by some persons who devoted their lives to the service of God, promising to live in perpetual chastity, obedience, and poverty, after the manner of Canons. In 1228 the order was confirmed in the council of Troyes, and subjected to a rule of discipline. In 1312 it was suppressed by the council of Vienne. The officers elect, of this new organization are from amongst our best citizens...... Mr. N. Haun informs us that it is his intention to take the Lewiston out on a free excursion, to the people of C[illegible] and Oregon City, by W[illegible] morning next, at 9 o'clock. All are invited to go who wish......On Tuesday evening Hon. A. C. Gibbs will lecture in the regular order of the Odd Fellows' Course, at this city. His subject is upon "Railroads," just at this time rather an important one with us. On the evening of the 31st, Friday next, Hon. W. W. Upton, of Portland will be here, and give us a lecture upon the "Actual and the Possible." Quite a varied inte[illegible] will no doubt attach to this subject. Prof. S. C. Simpson, of Salem, will follow Mr. Upton on Tuesday evening, February 4th, with a lecture upon the subject of "Contentment." Thus the programme is laid out without, we hope, any further disappointments to the end. The stopping of communication was entirely unlooked for, and the delays have been unavoidable, but we can assure the public that the Committee will do all that is in their power to render the course acceptable. The lectures already delivered have been quite interesting and the interest in no case on that point will flag, as one may see by glancing at the names on the list of lecturers yet to come. Dr. Wythe will be here at some time not yet definitely decided upon. O. P. Mason, Esq., will come on the 11th, and the Committee are now arranging for the 10th, or final lecture, made vacant, and to be supplied, by the departure of Gov. Woods for the East.

PRODUCE.—The steamer Alert last evening brought down from Oregon City, 81 [illegible] bacon, 22 hf bbls dried apples, 35 boxes and 119 hf bbls miscellaneous produce, 127 bags wheat, 42 cases lard, 5 bales woolen goods, 1 bale index, 400 qr sacks flour, 21 hf bbls apples, 14 sacks fruit, 7 kegs eggs, 4 boxes do., 2 bundles iron, 3 cows and a lot of furniture.

MUCH WORK FOR LITTLE FUN.—Some enterprising indi[illegible] worked a good part of the day yesterday, sweeping the snow off the ice of Couch's lake in order to make a place for skating. The snow being two or three inches deep and frozen to the ice, it looked like an ext[illegible] melancholy job.

GERMANIA.—The members of the Germania Literary Society G[illegible] are requested to meet at their hall this, Tuesday, evening, at 8 o'clock. By order of the Committee.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Cong[illegible] approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collecti[illegible] of Notes and Accounts on the principal places of Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Gold or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Or[illegible].

SHATTERED CONSTITUTIONS RESTORED by HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

[illegible] Luther once thought he saw the devil in his chamber, and threw an inkstand at his head. Had they had in those days AYER'S PILLS to exorcise all the [illegible] that come from a [illegible], his laughable fright would not have become a matter of history.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epileptic fits ensue.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS should be in the possession of everybody in the mining region. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold-seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite [illegible] even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of diarrhea, dysentery and the prevailing fevers consequent upon [illegible], the Bitters will be found invaluable as a [illegible]. No man should enter upon the exposed camp life of a miner without being provided with [illegible] bottles of them, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters.—Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

Is a certain cure for diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, DROPSY, ORGANIC WEAKNESS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, GENERAL DEBILITY, and all diseases of the URINARY ORGANS,
whether existing in
MALE OR FEMALE,
from whatever cause originating and no matter of
HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS,

and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

established upwards of 18 years, prepared by

DR. C. W. COOL,

DENTIST.

THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received, December 3d, 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

OFFICE—temporarily at the private parlor of the New Columbian Hotel. dec31-3ptf.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

TAKE NO MORE UNPLEASANT AND UNSAFE REMEDIES for unpleasant and dangerous diseases. Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

Important New Feature in Dividends and Modes of Insurance:

The following are examples of the operations of the last dividend:

POLICIES ISSUED IN 1862—ONLY FOUR YEARS AGO.

Age.	Amount insured.	Premium paid.	Added to policy.	Total amount.
40	$10,000	$1,200	$3,572	$13,572
35	8,000	1,002	2,848	10,848
30	7,500	708	2,708	10,208
25	7,000	471	2,505	9,505

This is an entirely new plan, originating with this Company, and gives insurers the largest return ever made by any company in the same period. Persons contemplating taking out policies of Life Insurance would do well to investigate the different Companies represented in Oregon.

HENRY L. PITTOCK,
No. 5 Washington street.

"John Paul" on Horace Greeley.

"John Paul" has heard Dickens read, and is now willing to read in public for half the money received by the great novelist. He is drilling for the task:

"At present I'm reading "Recollections of a Busy Life," by my old friend Horace Greeley. I like to discipline my mind, and no severer discipline occurs to me. At present I'm resting over the paragraph in which a pleasant compliment is paid to Mr. Raymond, of the Times. The surprise quite took my breath away. He is the only man, says Mr. Greeley, ever connected with the Tribune office, that it was ever necessary to caution against doing too much—against overtasking himself. Very likely, for Mr. Raymond is a famous worker; but I'm sorry that Mr. Greeley does not kindly interfere to prevent some of the [illegible] of his editorial staff from straining [illegible]. They do altogether too much; the public would be amply satisfied with less.

That Mr. Greeley has always had a kindly [illegible] for his old employes, and that it has been [illegible] to the full, none can doubt that have [illegible] of the Tribune and Times. The little epithets exchanged were playful bandinage, relics of the old familiar times when their desks were [illegible] and H. J. broke journal [illegible] only this and nothing more.

For instance, Mr. Greeley coming down to the [illegible] at night to read proof, and finding Mr Raymond hard at work at his desk, would address [illegible] You here yet, you little villain? didn't I tell you to go home three hours ago, and [illegible] away like mad. You little villain, do you mean to break down your [illegible] without a first class assistant? [illegible] into the box, and come out and [illegible] and cakes, you indefatigable ras[illegible]

Very much so with Thurlow Weed, who was [illegible] of the [illegible], before his present [illegible] the Commercial Advertiser. He [illegible] worker, too, and H. G. found similar [illegible] than he did with H. J., though in [illegible] Fourth of July, Thurlow [illegible] writing [illegible] of firing [illegible] as the boys were doing. "You old [illegible] aren't you off keeping the [illegible] time of it!" H. G. [illegible] on his ex[illegible] I told you to take a holiday [illegible] didn't say anything [illegible] would reply. [illegible] old liar, you cantanker[illegible] old scoundrel, [illegible] Clear out of here and [illegible] till to-morrow morning, and [illegible] you tow-headed [illegible]

[illegible] used to talk to [illegible] and he keeps it up now that [illegible] their own. The general [illegible] and think that [illegible] he's only [illegible] They know [illegible] all the while, and the kindness [illegible] at the bottom, and don't mind it [illegible]

[illegible] when Horace gets to the [illegible] address the throne or [illegible] in that style. They're [illegible] he was in earnest, [illegible] exception to his language. HIRAM SMITH'S Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garat & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; JOHN M HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT!

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURchased the "UNION BOOK & JOB PRINTING OFFICE," of T. F. McElroy, propose to issue a Weekly Newspaper at Olympia, W. T., on or about the 1st of December next, to be called THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT.

The paper will be devoted to the Agricultural, Mechanical, Commercial, Mineral, Moral and Political interests of the whole Territory.

In Politics we shall uphold and sustain the Union Principles of the Nation, at the same time reserving the right to be INDEPENDENT on all subjects, that we may be better able to discuss all matters in their true light, and give credit wherever it is due.

We trust our friends will circulate this prospectus generally, and assist us in getting a good list of Subscribers, Advertisements, or Job Work. We also invite correspondence from all sections of the Territory.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT will be issued every Saturday, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Hoping to receive a share of public favor, we unfurl our banner to the breeze.

CARD.

DR BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

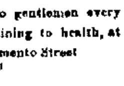
Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street. dec2d3m4p

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the affects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation these sand-sufferers until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief is not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy5d4ptf

REDINGTON & CO'S

ESSENCE OF

JAMAICA GINGER

This valuable preparation, containing, in a highly concentrated form, all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for, while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

Sold by Druggists everywhere, and at wholesale by REDINGTON & CO., Agents for the Pacific Coast, San Francisco. je24d7m4p

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

⁂ CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

⁂ CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

⁂ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so unin[illegible] a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motive; but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms; Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power, [illegible] irritability; cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; symptoms of consumption; short breath; flushings of the face; aversion to society, confusion of the mind, loss of energy, nightly [illegible]; colorless; slight discharges upon the least excitement; trembling, palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may secure health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self abuse, even in the slightest degree, you have the seeds of weakness in your [illegible], and these, [illegible] with, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See in the bent form and languid step, the poor victim of the [illegible] vice! Mark the [illegible] of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the [illegible] symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights are [illegible] days of [illegible].

It is the nature of the complaint to assume [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the occasion, suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition, from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs. Cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are [illegible] of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated, show a record [illegible] by any hospital in the world, and the [illegible] that has invariably [illegible] the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous, for it is a thoroughly established medical principle that those poisonous drugs, by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in-doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be, "Where is there a physician competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore, families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble, and in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skillful and and faithful nurses.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city. To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint, will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation Free.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical Institute,
No. 536 Washington Street,

THE [illegible] infection which we call SCROFULA [illegible] in the constitution [illegible] either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, [illegible] that fluid become[illegible] competent to [illegible] the vital forces in [illegible] vigorous [illegible] leaves the [illegible] to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.
